Festival del film Locarno
Official selection

An old groom walks in the open horizon towards a bride waiting for him.
They meet but the distance between them starts to grow once again.

It is parallel lines struggling to meet. Sometimes, they do, but this only happens without realizing.
It is desire drawing the line upon which the characters are trying to balance, treading in a world that is not.

Efthimis Kosemund Sanidis, born in 1983, bears the Greek and German nationalities. He lives and works between northern France and Athens. Since 2010, he has directed commercial projects and short films. Currently, he is in residency at Le Fresnoy - Studio National des Arts Contemporains in France. He is an alumnus of the Berlinale and Sarajevo Talent Campus. It is his debut short film.
